Grace joined the firm in 2026 after gaining legal experience as a Summer Associate at (Legacy) Frost Brown Todd in Nashville, Tennessee during the summers of 2024 and 2025. She also gained experience through legislative and public sector internships across state and international jurisdictions, serving as a state intern in the Ohio House of Representatives and as an intern to a Member of Parliament in the Canadian Parliament. Most recently, Grace held the position of Chief Intern in the Office of Student Affairs at the University of Louisville Brandeis School of Law. Grace has worked with corporate and franchise employers, public sector institutions, legislative bodies, and academic organizations.

Grace served on the Editorial Board of the University of Louisville Law Review and as a Representative for the Disability & Allied Law Students Association during her law school career, where she earned her Juris Doctor in May 2026. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science with a minor in Legal Foundations of Society from The Ohio State University, where she was a Politics, Society and Law Scholar and Trustee's Scholarship recipient, and completed the Oxford Pre-Law Program at the University of Oxford's Centre for Socio-Legal Studies in Oxford, England. Grace currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Louisville Civic Orchestra and is a member of the Labor and Employment Section and Young Lawyers Division of both the Louisville Bar Association and the Kentucky Bar Association.
