Peyton assists clients in business and commercial disputes, helping them evaluate their claims and defenses and advance their positions in litigation. Having co-founded and run a small business before law school, he understands firsthand how a legal dispute can affect a company's operations and finances. He brings that perspective to his work for clients by focusing on practical, efficient resolutions.

Peyton earned his J.D., magna cum laude, from the University of Dayton School of Law, where he graduated in the top 10% of his class. During law school, he served as an Associate Editor of the University of Dayton Law Review, worked as a Teaching Assistant for Constitutional Law, and received multiple CALI Excellence for the Future Awards. He also earned a B.A. in Political Science and a minor in General Business from Miami University.
