Cami's practice is particularly focused on noncompete litigation, and she has substantial experience in handling temporary restraining orders and preliminary injunction evidentiary hearings. She also manages regulatory and corporate matters. In addition, Cami devotes a significant amount of her practice to assisting nonprofit clients, having extensive experience with nonprofit entity formation and the process for obtaining 501(c)(3) tax exemption.

She joined the firm in 2021 after participating in FBT Gibbons' summer associate program in 2018 and 2019. Before joining the firm, she served as a legal extern with Eli Lilly and Company and Indiana University Health. Cami graduated magna cum laude from Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law, where she was an articles editor for the Indiana Law Review. Before law school, Cami graduated magna cum laude from Hanover College with a degree in political science.
