Drew routinely represents lenders in complex commercial real estate loan originations, servicing, and modifications. His experience covers a wide range of asset classes, including industrial, multi-family, hotel, office, and self-storage properties, and deal sizes ranging from $2,000,000 to over $250,000,000. Additionally, Drew focuses on property diligence and complex corporate structures, including analyzing and negotiating governing organizational documents, leases, property title, purchase and sale agreements, and management agreements.

Drew serves as the 2025 Vice-Chair for the Corporate Section of the Louisville Bar Association.

Prior to joining the firm in 2021, Drew worked in residential real estate litigation, focusing on issues such as latent and construction defects. In law school, Drew served as Senior Staff for the Kentucky Journal of Equine, Agriculture, & Natural Resources Law and interned and externed with the Fayette County Commonwealth's Attorney's Office where he conducted various hearings and assisted with a trial in Fayette County Circuit Court.
