Tyler is a senior associate in the Private Client and Wealth Planning Service Team based in the Lexington, Kentucky office. Tyler concentrates his practice in wealth and estate planning for individuals and families including probate estate and trust administration, business succession planning, wealth transfer planning, and charitable giving. Tyler works with clients in all aspects of estate planning and business succession planning by implementing wills, revocable and irrevocable trusts, generation skipping trusts, private settlement agreements to modify trusts, and other unique estate planning strategies. Tyler represents individual and corporate executors and trustees as well as the beneficiaries of estates and trusts. Tyler frequently assists high-net worth individuals and families in developing customized estate planning strategies to meet their objectives while mitigating estate, gift, and generation-skipping transfer tax liabilities.
