Nick is a trusted advisor with extensive experience guiding companies, investors, and founders through complex international and domestic corporate transactions, real estate matters, and trust and estate planning.

Nick regularly serves as outside general counsel to growing and established organizations, partnering closely with leadership teams to support day-to-day operations, strategic decision-making, and risk management. His practice encompasses entity structuring and formation, corporate governance, mergers and acquisitions, financing and lending transactions, construction and development matters, commercial contracting, director and officer responsibilities, and long-term business planning.

He also counsels public and private companies on compliance with federal, state, and local regulatory requirements and represents clients in government agency interactions, regulatory inquiries, and audits.

Other Info About Nick

Experience

Nick's breadth of industry experience allows him to deliver practical, business-minded legal solutions across a wide range of sectors, including internet technology and web development, construction, manufacturing, transportation and logistics, private equity and finance, tax and accounting, commercial banking, real estate brokerage and property management, insurance, medical and dental practices, health care and mental health services, industrial storage and warehousing, restaurant and food services, grocery and supermarket operations, retail, social services, and charitable and community outreach organizations.

Mergers, Acquisitions, and Divestitures

Represented a construction‑technology company in its reverse triangular merger with a national logistics‑technology acquirer, navigating a complex capital structure involving multiple convertible notes, competing investor interests, and time‑sensitive closing risks to secure a successful exit.

Led corporate transactional support for multiple growth‑stage and venture‑backed companies, including strategic investments, operational expansions, and related corporate transactions.

Supported a legacy real estate investment enterprise in expanding its corporate and transactional work, resulting in significant annual collections and continued engagement across multiple business units.

Outside General Counsel Services

Served as outside general counsel to a regional engineering and environmental services company, advising on day‑to‑day corporate governance, commercial, and operational matters and helping the company leverage a national legal platform for expanded operational needs.

Acted as primary outside counsel to a construction‑technology business facing financial distress, guiding the company through urgent liability mitigation, strategic planning, and ultimately a successful exit transaction that preserved value for stakeholders.

Represented a multi‑state healthcare services provider in securing and structuring a wide range of provider‑side regulatory and transactional engagements supporting the company's operational growth.

Advised a growing urgent-care and clinical services organization on corporate and operational matters while coordinating firm resources to support the company's leadership and operational initiatives.

Expanded legal services for a portfolio of closely held and founder-led businesses across the software, technology, clinical services, and professional services sectors, providing ongoing outside general counsel and corporate advisory support.

International Services

Represented a global technology conglomerate in obtaining U.S. corporate and finance support related to federally funded clean-energy initiatives.
