Bradford is an associate in the Business Litigation practice group. Following his Summer Associate program with the FBT Gibbons in 2021, Bradford joined the firm to focus on complex matters such as contract disputes, unfair competition, and corporate risk management.

Prior to joining FBT Gibbons, Bradford earned a bachelor's degree in strategic marketing from Western Kentucky University. After spending two years as a marketing professional, he decided to attend the University of Cincinnati College of Law. During his law school tenure, Bradford was given an award for earning the highest grade in his Evidence, Negotiations, and Civil Procedure I classes. He also served on the Executive Committee for UC's Trial Team and as an Articles Editor for the University of Cincinnati Law Review.
