10 West Broad Street, Suite 2300
Columbus, OH 43215

As a Law School and Student Relations Specialist, Ian connects law students with educational and career opportunities at FBT Gibbons. He plays a key role in the firm's recruitment strategies, maintaining strong relationships with law schools and students nationwide. Ian also serves as a liaison to local office recruiting partners, collaborates with recruiting teams, and is the firm's main contact for the National Association for Law Placement (NALP).

Before this role, Ian was the Assistant Director of Recruitment and Enrollment at The Ohio State University's College of Education and Human Ecology, where he managed recruitment for 12 graduate programs. His time at OSU built upon four years of work in undergraduate admissions, including with transfer and international students. His career is defined by a dedication to fostering student success.
