Samantha's practice focuses on all aspects of government services. She represents townships, cities, school districts, and other public entities in the areas of land use, zoning, taxpayer lawsuits, labor relations, and general litigation. Prior to joining the firm, Samantha served as an Assistant Prosecuting Attorney in Hamilton County, Ohio, for over seven years. There, she litigated hundreds of cases and secured convictions in both bench and jury trials.

Samantha has represented government entities since graduating from law school. One of her greatest strengths is her willingness to truly understand her clients' needs and issues. She is focused on using her legal knowledge and experiences to assist them in any way possible.

Samantha is a proud graduate of Wyoming High School and enjoys giving back to her community. She has been a trustee on the Wyoming High School Alumni Association Board for over 10 years where she currently serves as the scholarship chair. In her free time, Samantha enjoys spending time with her husband and two daughters.
