Richard (Rick) Sarcone focuses his practice on complex commercial litigation. He has represented a wide variety of clients as plaintiffs and defendants at all stages of the litigation process, including pre-suit investigation, motion practice, trial and appeal.

Rick maintains an active trust and estate litigation practice, where he represents trustees, executors, and beneficiaries in contested trust and estate matters. He has experience litigating disputes over trust and estate assets, fiduciary disputes, will and trust contests involving undue influence or lack of capacity assertions, and breach of fiduciary duty claims.

Rick has significant experience litigating business competition disputes, many of which involve alleged trade secret theft, non-competes and tortious interference claims. Rick's practice spans state and federal courts, as well as arbitration proceedings.
