1801 California Street
Suite 4900
Denver, CO 80202

Mamie represents clients in a variety of industries through all phases of litigation, including investigations, discovery, trial, and post-trial procedures and appeals. Mamie has represented clients in retail and hospitality, real estate, construction, and transportation in matters involving contractual disputes, product liability, construction defects, governmental immunity, and premises liability. She has experience with complex, high-profile cases. Mamie's successful outcomes include obtaining a favorable interpretation of the Colorado's Worker's Compensation Act from the Colorado Supreme Court that decreased collectible damages by a plaintiff, as well as obtaining the dismissal of a foreign corporation in a product liability case due to lack of personal jurisdiction.
