Scott has developed a broad practice focused on finance, real estate and general business advising. He has extensive experience in public finance transactions having served as bond counsel, underwriter's counsel, disclosure counsel and purchaser's counsel. Scott's representative experience includes real estate purchase agreements and leases. He also serves as general counsel to public and governmental entities, councils, boards and commissions advising on multiple aspects, including open door laws, public records issues, and various aspects of economic development and redevelopment initiatives.

In addition, Scott advises clients in the sports and entertainment industries. He serves as counsel to businesses and private entities, advising them on administrative and operational matters, entity formation, contract negotiations, governance and general corporate compliance.

Prior to joining FBT Gibbons, Scott was an Assistant Commissioner for the Ohio Valley Conference. He was also named twice as an NCAA Division I Academic All-American in cross-country and track and field.
