Yassi advises clients in merger and acquisition deals and in general corporate matters. Yassi assists clients with entity formation, corporate governance, commercial contracts, and compliance with various federal and state regulations. Yassi also has experience conducting and managing due diligence in buy-side and sell-side transactions.

In her practice, Yassi assists clients with negotiation of agreements, drafting and analyzing various transaction documents including purchase agreements, term sheets, operating agreements, bylaws, corporate resolutions, security agreements, services agreements, and privacy policies. Yassi also has experience representing lenders in commercial lending transactions and assisting in the drafting and review of financing documents, including loan agreements, credit agreements, and security agreements.

Before joining Frost Brown Todd, Yassi worked at national and regional law firms in Denver. Yassi is fluent in Farsi and proficient in French.
