Ali is a seasoned litigator who helps businesses and individuals navigate complex disputes with confidence. Since joining FBT Gibbons in 2006, Ali has built a reputation for clear strategy, persuasive advocacy, and practical solutions in a wide range of business litigation matters.

Ali's experience spans corporate governance litigation (shareholder/director disputes, fiduciary duty liability, business divorces), contract disputes, business torts, unfair competition litigation (trade secrets, non-competes, non-disclosure agreements), real estate litigation, transportation and logistics, banking and financial disputes, trust and estate litigation, and other areas of complex commercial litigation.

Ali has successfully tried bench and jury trials and evidentiary hearings in both state and federal courts across Ohio and in Michigan, Florida, New Jersey, and New York. He has also argued motions and appellate cases before state and federal judges in numerous other jurisdictions, demonstrating his ability to advocate effectively at every level of the judicial system.

Clients value Ali's ability to solve problems. He cuts through complexity, anticipates challenges, and delivers results. Whether representing Fortune 500 companies or local entrepreneurs, he combines deep legal knowledge with a practical, client-focused approach that inspires trust and achieves outcomes.
