Jason is a commercial real estate attorney who represents lenders, developers and investors on a variety of matters including financing, acquisition, sale, development, construction, leasing and more. Jason also represents businesses and individuals on general business matters from entity formation to succession planning. He takes a pragmatic and detail-oriented approach to the practice of law to help his clients accomplish their goals. Known for his responsiveness and commitment, Jason is valued for going the extra mile to ensure his clients' needs are met.

Jason graduated from the University of Cincinnati College of Law in 2019. While pursuing his undergraduate degree from Bowling Green State University, Jason was a member of the varsity baseball team and served as a team captain his senior year. As a student-athlete, Jason learned the importance of teamwork, communication, and leadership which he now applies to the practice of law.

Jason is a member of the Cincinnati Reds Community Fund Young Professional Board where he is able to use his love for the game of baseball to give back to the community. He is also a member of the Cincinnati Bar Association Real Property Law Committee and stays actively involved in local bar activities.

Jason is originally from Hamilton, Ohio and currently lives in the Oakley neighborhood of Cincinnati. When he is not working, Jason is an avid golfer, hometown sports fan, and enjoys the outdoors, hiking and traveling with his wife.
