Louisville, KY 40202

Gayle Williams serves as a senior paralegal in the Louisville office. She joined the firm in 2011 and works in the CMBS Lending and Servicing Group. Gayle has 20 years of experience in the Corporate, Real Estate and CMBS Lending and Servicing areas. Gayle has extensive experience with all aspects of a CMBS loan transaction from its beginning stages to closing, including title, survey and due diligence review.

Gayle's expertise is most often utilized to manage and close the group's largest and most complex loan transactions. She oversees the workflow of a team of seven staff members who assist with the closing and post-closing process of all of the loan closings within the group. Gayle also is involved in the training of new staff members and paralegals that join the CMBS Lending & Servicing Group.
