For nearly four decades, Kevin has helped businesses and individuals navigate complex, high-stakes disputes where the legal and commercial stakes are significant. A seasoned commercial litigator, Kevin represents clients in matters involving global supply chains, shareholder disputes, product liability, and trust and estate litigation. His practice spans a range of industries and clients, including manufacturers, insurers, family offices and other businesses facing sophisticated civil litigation.

Kevin brings a strategic, practical approach to litigation, drawing on decades of experience to help clients assess risk, protect their interests and pursue effective resolutions in challenging disputes.

Beyond his practice, Kevin has served as an Adjunct Professor of Trial Advocacy at the University of Pittsburgh School of Law since 2006, bringing his courtroom experience to the next generation of advocates.
