Briley N. Chambers

Associate

bchambers@fbtgibbons.com | 502.779.8501

400 West Market Street
Suite 3200
Louisville, KY 40202

Briley has experience defending employers of all sizes in litigation and administrative proceedings involving discrimination, retaliation, wage and hour disputes, OSHA enforcement, and other claims under Title VII, the ADA, FMLA, FLSA, and related employment laws. She also assists clients with workplace policies, internal investigations, and employment agreements.

Briley graduated cum laude from Tulane University Law School in 2025 with a Certificate of Concentration in Sports Law. While in law school, she was Editor-In-Chief of the Sports Lawyers Journal, Senior Chair of the Tulane International Fútbol Negotiation Competition, and completed legal externships with the New Orleans Saints and Pelicans. Additionally, she volunteered with the New Orleans Entertainment Law Legal Assistance Project, providing pro bono legal aid to local artists, musicians, grassroots nonprofits, and other cultural figures in the community. For her commitment to public service throughout her law school career, Briley was awarded the Jackson-Ryan Pro Bono Advocate Award.
