Matt assists clients on a wide range of labor and employment matters, including separation agreements, discrimination claims, cease-and-desist issues, and FLSA defense work. Matt also supports clients in traditional labor matters, providing guidance on arbitration, collective bargaining issues, wrongful terminations charges, and unfair labor practice charges.

He earned his J.D. from the Salmon P. Chase College of Law summa cum laude and was the class Valedictorian. While attending law school, he served as the Editor-in-Chief of the Northern Kentucky Law Review and a teaching assistant in evidence and constitutional law. Matt also interned for the Honorable Judge Karen L. Litkovitz, the Honorable Judge Jeffery P. Hopkins, and the Honorable Judge Jennifer M. Kinsley, where he received valuable mentorship from each judge about how cases operate in court and how the judge perceives issues before them.

Outside of work, you can find Matt spending time with his family where he is most likely chasing around—or being chased by—his wonderful daughters, nieces, and nephews.
