Taylor Ecleberry is an Associate in the firm's Tax, Benefits, & Estates practice group. Prior to joining the firm, she served as a law clerk to the Honorable Gregory F. Van Tatenhove in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Kentucky, where she gained valuable experience in federal litigation and judicial processes.

Taylor earned her J.D., summa cum laude, from the University of Kentucky J. David Rosenberg College of Law. During law school, she served as Managing Editor of the Kentucky Law Journal, was a research assistant to a research professor, and received the Outstanding Service Contribution Scholarship for her leadership at KLJ. She also held several leadership roles, including orientation leader and student ambassador, as well as volunteering at the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) clinic.

Taylor earned her Bachelor of Arts in Politics, with a minor in Mass Communications, from Washington & Lee University, where she remains active as a member of the Alumni Admissions Program.
