Frank is the Northeast Chair of the Business Department and a member of the Executive Committee and Finance Committee and sits on the Board of Directors at FBT Gibbons LLP. His practice is in the middle market, primarily focused on mergers and acquisitions, private equity, early-stage and emerging growth, and corporate and securities law. He has extensive experience representing clients in connection with public and private capital raising, private equity, venture capital, mergers and acquisitions, public-private-partnerships (P3)/government transactions, alternative energy finance, cross-border transactions, venture capital, and other early-stage transactions.

Under Frank's leadership, the firm's corporate practice in the Northeast has become known for its complex and sophisticated transactions and strong capital markets-based approach. As a result, the practice was included on the DOW JONES Private Equity Analyst lists of "Most Active Law Firms" in the nation in private equity transactions for six years in a row. In addition, the practice has been included on Chambers USA's lists in the corporate arena.

For his accomplishments, Frank was selected as one of only 25 NJBIZ "Leaders in Law" in 2022 and was inducted in 2021 into the Hall of Fame of the Seton Hall Stillman School of Business Center of Innovation and Entrepreneurship. He is listed in Chambers USA, Best Lawyers®, and New Jersey Super Lawyers, and included on The Legal 500's 2023, 2024, and 2025 M&A Private Practice Powerlist-USA Region, and on the NJBIZ 2025-2026 "Law Power" list.

Of particular note, Frank oversaw the firm's Northeast corporate practice's handling of the U.S. law as part of a multidisciplinary team led by Deloitte that advised renowned international lifestyle brand, Birkenstock Group, on the sale of a majority stake to L Catterton, the largest, most global consumer-focused private equity firm; this representation led him and his team to be included on the Finance Monthly 2022 "Dealmakers of the Year" list. Additionally, he and his team played a key role in the national rental car industry's first Public Private Partnership (P3) financing structure, for the development of a $500 million Consolidated Rent-A Car facility at Newark Liberty International Airport. This practice was lead counsel to Avis Budget Group, The Hertz Corporation, Enterprise Holdings, Inc. and Advantage Inc. in negotiating the companies' lease agreements for the new, major facility.

In addition, Frank established the firm's Northeast corporate practice's:

- Public-Private Partnerships Group to advise clients in connection with Public-Private-Partnerships (P3), complex, highly regulated, and substantial value commercial transactions involving private and governmental sectors. As a result, we recently served as lead counsel to (i) the New Jersey Sports & Exposition Authority (NJSEA) with its divestiture of the Meadowlands and Monmouth Park Racetracks; (ii) the NJSEA in connection with its commercial interests at the prominent American Dream Meadowlands project (formerly known as Xanadu), and (iii) the New Jersey State Lottery in connection with its privatization and engagement of a private company to provide it with management and other services (only the third State to have done so successfully).
- International Services to provide corporate and transactional services to international clients making acquisitions and investments in the United States, as well as to U.S. clients making such investments in international markets.

- Private Equity Group to advise clients regarding fund formations, exits for fund investors, and institutional and public pension funds with their investments. Providing a full scope of selected services including due diligence, fund formation and fundraising, fund administration, portfolio company transactions and exit strategies. Representing private equity funds with respect to their merger and acquisition activities and privately held businesses with their sales to private equity funds.
- Early-Stage Business Practice to advise investor and entrepreneur clients in connection with venture capital and other financings, as well as joint ventures, licensing, strategic alliances, and supply chain arrangements, helping our clients achieve favorable terms and conditions while avoiding pitfalls and minimizing risk, as well as business plans, organizational structures, and investor strategies and presentations, and the full range of corporate services that emerging companies require as they grow, mature, and prosper.
- Renewable Energy to advise clients in connection with funding of energy projects, particularly solar, which includes project structures, project finance, long term and bridge financing matters, infrastructure development, federal tax credits, solar renewable energy credit (SRECs), and power purchase agreements, among others.

Frank is also:

- A member of the Board of Visitors (Board of Trustees) for the Seton Hall University School of Law.
- Co-Chair of the Board of Advisors for the Seton Hall University Stillman School Center for Entrepreneurial Studies.
- Board of Directors and Member, Association for Corporate Growth (ACG); Member, ACG In-House Counsel and Corporate Development Officer Forums
- A former member of the Executive Committee of the New Jersey Italy Trade Council.

- A former member of NAREIT and Project Finance Editorial Advisory Board Member, Law360.
- Included on Best Lawyers®, New Jersey Super Lawyers, and Chambers USA lists.
- A member of the New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania Bars and a graduate with honors of Boston College and Seton Hall University School of Law.

Frank enjoys competing in endurance events: marathons, triathlons, and Ironman competitions.
