Three FBT Gibbons Partners Named to Benchmark Litigation's 2026 40 & Under List

FBT Gibbons partners John Haggerty, Kate Janukowicz, and Caroline Oks have been named to Benchmark Litigation's 2026 40 & Under List, which recognizes litigators age 40 or younger across the United States.

Benchmark Litigation selects honorees based on its review of recent casework and feedback from litigation professionals and clients, identifying attorneys who stand out among the profession's emerging talent.

Haggerty handles complex litigation at the trial and appellate levels. He represents clients in federal and state courts in high-stakes commercial disputes, professional liability matters, and white-collar litigation.

Janukowicz focuses her commercial litigation practice on securities and common law fraud claims, class action defense, and construction disputes. She has significant experience briefing and arguing discovery and dispositive motions.

Oks represents clients in complex commercial disputes, including class actions and matters involving common law fraud, breach of contract, business torts, and health care issues. Her work spans factual investigations, discovery and case strategy, motions practice, and appeals.

Founded in 2008, Benchmark Litigation focuses exclusively on litigation and dispute resolution. Its research considers recent casework and feedback from litigators, dispute resolution professionals, and clients.
