Frost Brown Todd Member and Founder of the firm's Women's Initiative, Beth Schneider Naylor, is the winner of the 2013 "Ohio Glass Ceiling Award." This award is given by the National Diversity Council for outstanding leadership of women who have not only achieved personal and professional success, but are making it possible for others to follow in their footsteps. Naylor will receive the award at the 2013 Ohio Women's Conference luncheon on Thursday, May 30 at noon. The luncheon will be held at the University of Cincinnati Tangeman University Center.

Naylor has vice-chaired Frost Brown Todd's products liability practice group, founded and chaired the FBT Women's Initiative and served on the firm's Diversity and Inclusion Committee. In 2011, she was named as FBT "Mentor of the Year."

About National Diversity Council

The National Diversity Council is the first non-profit organization to bring together the private, public and non-profit sectors to discuss the many dimensions and benefits of a multicultural environment. The vision of the NDC is to cultivate a nationwide network of affiliated councils to advance diversity and inclusion by transforming our workplaces and communities into inclusive environments where individuals are valued for their talents and empowered to reach their fullest potential.
