Frost Brown Todd names Michele Lorbieski Anderson new member in Indianapolis

Frost Brown Todd (FBT) is pleased to announce the appointment of six new members across its footprint, including Michele Lorbieski Anderson in Indianapolis. Anderson practices in the litigation department, focusing on business litigation and white-collar criminal defense. She joined FBT Indianapolis as an associate in August 2009 after having practiced law in California.

Anderson is involved in numerous civic organizations and serves as a board member of Cheer Guild of Riley Hospital for Children and Indiana University Hospital. She is also a mentor for the Starfish Initiative and for the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity. She received her B.A. from DePauw University and her J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center. She has been selected for inclusion in each annual edition of the Indiana Super Lawyers Rising Stars® since 2012.
