Billy Mabry returns to Frost Brown Todd

Billy Mabry has joined Frost Brown Todd's Louisville office as part of the firm's regulated business practice. Mabry specializes in the area of health law and has represented healthcare facilities and healthcare providers across the United States and in England for more than 20 years. He assists clients in a range of business areas, such as acquisitions of facilities, physician contracting, medical building leases, and developing and implementing compliance plans. He also focuses on medical staff issues, including adverse actions and fair hearings, and represents clients in state and federal courts, in arbitration and mediation matters, and during investigations into patient care issues. He has also handled numerous False Claims Act Investigations involving the U.S. Department of Justice in Washington D.C. and Kentucky.

Mabry has spoken on health law and healthcare related topics in various forums. He is a member of the American Health Lawyers' Association and previously served as the assistant director of State Health Planning and Development Agency at the Kentucky Cabinet for Human Resources. Active in the community, Mabry has received the pro bono award for animal litigation from the Humane Society of the United States. He served on the committee "Beshear for Governor," and prior, as chairman of "Davis for Secretary of State."

Mabry received his J.D. from the University of Kentucky School of Law in 1984. He also has a Master of Public Administration (MPA) from the University of Kentucky, as well as a Bachelor of Science degree from Morehead State University.
