

Jan 26, 2015

Categories:

Press Releases

Governor Beshear reappoints Bill Robinson to the Kentucky Development Partnership Board

Wm. T. (Bill) Robinson III, Member-in-Charge of the Florence offices of Frost Brown Todd LLC, has been re-appointed by Kentucky Governor Steve Beshear to another four-year term on the Kentucky Economic Development Partnership Board. Since serving as American Bar Association President (2011-12), Robinson's volunteer leadership service also includes Secretary/Treasurer/Executive Committee Tri-County Economic Development Corporation, Executive Committee REDI Cincinnati (Regional Economic Development Initiative), Board Chair Greater Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky International Airport, Treasurer National Judicial College, Attorneys Committee National Center for State Courts, Special Advisor ABA Committee on the American Judiciary, Board Member American Bar Foundation, Executive Committee UC Economics Center for Education and Research, Uniform Law Commissioner, Business Advisory Committee Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland (Cincinnati Branch), UK College of Law Visiting Committee, Chair Dorothy Wood Foundation for Redwood and Honorary Chair Endowment Campaign for Redwood School and Rehabilitation Center.

In 2014, Bill and his wife, Joan, received the Thomas More College Bishop Hughes Award for support of Catholic education and Bill was inducted into the Northern Kentucky Business Hall of Fame.

© 2026 FBT Gibbons LLP. May be considered attorney advertising in some jurisdictions.