Rob Mecklenborg Joins Frost Brown Todd's Finance and Real Estate Team

Frost Brown Todd (FBT) is pleased to announce the addition of Rob Mecklenborg to the firm's Finance and Real Estate practice group in the Cincinnati office. Mecklenborg focuses his practice on structured finance, public-private partnerships, project finance, higher education, healthcare and real estate matters. He advises private and public sector clients on innovative solutions for their economic development needs, and frequently represents clients in corporate matters, non-profit law and contract negotiation.

Mecklenborg has a B.S from Miami University's Richard T. Farmer School of Business and received his J.D. at the University of Cincinnati College of Law. Prior to attending law school, he worked at a government relations firm, where he assisted clients with infrastructure and alternative energy issues at the state and federal level.
