

Apr 30, 2015

Categories:

Press Releases

Judge Heyburn, former FBT construction attorney, dies

U.S. Senior District Judge John G. Heyburn II, whose great-grandfather built the office tower that bears the family's name and whose father founded the law firm Brown Todd & Heyburn, often defied his patrician roots.

He earned his law degree from the University of Kentucky before joining his father's firm, now Frost Brown Todd, where he became a partner and an expert in construction contract law.

Please click here to read a full article published in the Courier-Journal.

© 2026 FBT Gibbons LLP. May be considered attorney advertising in some jurisdictions.