Former PNC Wealth Management Advisor Melanie McCoy Joins Frost Brown Todd

Frost Brown Todd (FBT) is pleased to announce the addition of Melanie McCoy to its Louisville office. McCoy joins the firm's Estates, Trusts and Wills team, which is comprised of more than 30 legal professionals. McCoy will concentrate her practice on estate and gift planning for individuals and families, focusing on business succession and charitable gift planning. She spent 10 years with PNC Wealth Management working in its fiduciary administration and wealth planning division, and previously worked in private law practice.

McCoy is a frequent speaker on various topics related to trust and estate planning and administration. She actively serves the Louisville community as a Director of the Louisville Free Public Library Foundation and as a Commissioner for the Library Advisory Commission. She also serves on the Board of Directors for Volunteers of America of Kentucky. McCoy was part of the Ignite Louisville Leadership Louisville Center Class of 2006 and was recognized in the 2008 Class of Forty Under 40 by Louisville Business First. She earned her bachelor's degree from the University of Kentucky and her J.D. from the University of Kentucky College of Law.
