Nathan Harris Joins Frost Brown Todd Nashville

The law firm Frost Brown Todd (FBT) has hired associate attorney Nathan S. Harris in its Nashville office. Harris joins FBT's Mergers and Acquisitions practice group and will serve clients in a wide variety of corporate and transactional matters. Harris joins the firm from Ernst & Young, where he advised large public and private companies in various industries such as healthcare, manufacturing and retail on federal, state and local tax consequences of complex transactions and internal reorganizations. He has also assisted companies with negotiating and securing economic incentives in different jurisdictions. Harris earned his J.D. at the University of Kentucky (UK) College of Law. He also earned a bachelor's degree in economics from UK.

FBT's Nashville team of attorneys and legal staff has a wide range of knowledge and skills and is led by member-in-charge Mekesha Montgomery. The group has deep industry experience representing clients in the automotive, government relations, payments industry, financial institutions, technology and international sectors.
