Benjamin Katz Joins Frost Brown Todd's Nashville Office

Frost Brown Todd (FBT) has hired associate Benjamin Katz to join the firm's business litigation practice in Nashville. Katz focuses his practice in commercial litigation and works with an array of clients, including individuals, and private and publicly held corporations. Katz previously represented consumer finance companies in cases involving mortgage loan origination issues, auto finance fraud, and Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) regulations. He also has experience in matters involving labor and employment law.

Katz graduated from University of Georgia Terry College of Business with a BBA in Banking and Finance and earned his J.D. from Emory University School of Law. He interned for the Honorable Willis Hunt, United States District Court for the Northern District of Georgia, and previously worked for law firms in Atlanta and Nashville. He is currently licensed to practice law in Tennessee and Florida.

FBT's Nashville team of attorneys and legal staff has a wide range of knowledge and skills and is led by Member-in-Charge Mekesha Montgomery. The group has specialized industry experience representing clients in the automotive, government relations, payments industry, financial institutions, technology and international sectors.
