

May 23, 2015

Categories:

Press Releases

Lauren E. Smith joins Frost Brown Todd's Regulated Business Practice

Lauren E. Smith has joined Frost Brown Todd as an associate in the firm's Louisville office. Her law practice focuses in the areas of regulated business, with a concentration on financial institutions and franchise. Smith graduated from the University of Kentucky with bachelors' degrees in economics and political science. She earned her J.D. at Vanderbilt University Law School in Nashville, where served as managing editor of the Vanderbilt Law Review and as a member of the Vanderbilt Legal Clinic. Smith is licensed to practice law in Kentucky and Ohio.

© 2026 FBT Gibbons LLP. May be considered attorney advertising in some jurisdictions.