

Stephanie Gause Named President of the Dallas Association of Young Lawyers

Dec 09, 2015

Categories:

Press Releases

Frost Brown Todd LLC (FBT) is pleased to announce that its member, Stephanie K. Gause, will serve as president of the Dallas Association of Young Lawyers (DAYL) in 2016. Gause has been involved with the DAYL since participating in the DAYL Leadership Class as a second-year attorney in 2007. She was elected to the DAYL Board of Directors in 2011 and was recognized with the Outstanding Director Award the same year. Gause has served as the Secretary, Treasurer, Vice President, and President-Elect of DAYL. She also serves on the Board of Trustees of the DAYL Foundation and chaired the DAYL Foundation in 2014.

"Stephanie's extended involvement with the Dallas Association of Young Lawyers and particularly her role within its leadership ranks speaks very clearly to her dedication, both as a professional and as a member of the broader legal and business communities," said Dan Novakov, Member-in-Charge of Frost Brown Todd's Dallas office.

Gause is a member at FBT, where she counsels clients in a variety of real estate and corporate transactions, from acquisition and sale of real property, office and retail leasing, commercial lending and real estate finance, to asset purchases and dispositions. She received her B.B.A., with honors, in Finance and the Business Honors Program from the University of Texas at Austin and graduated with honors from the University of Texas School of Law.

Gause also serves on the Steering Committee of the Dallas Museum of Art, Junior Associates and on the Board of Directors for Lee Park & Arlington Hall Conservancy. Gause was selected by the Dallas Business Journal for its "40 Under 40" Class of 2014. She has been nominated by attorney peers and chosen by the research team at Super Lawyers for inclusion in three consecutive editions of Texas Rising Stars®, 2013–2015.

© 2026 FBT Gibbons LLP. May be considered attorney advertising in some jurisdictions.