Justin Fowles of Frost Brown Todd Elected 2016 Vice–Chair of Louisville Bar Association’s Litigation Section

Justin S. Fowles has been appointed vice–chair of the Louisville Bar Association’s (LBA) Litigation Section for 2016. The Litigation Section advances LBA’s objective of promoting justice, professional excellence and respect for the law within all areas of litigation. As a voluntary bar organization, the LBA operates under the supervision of the Kentucky Supreme Court, and serves legal professionals and the public through numerous educational and development programs in Jefferson County and throughout Kentucky and Southern Indiana.

Fowles is a senior associate with Frost Brown Todd and represents clients in all stages of complex litigation. He earned his J.D. at the University of Louisville Louis D. Brandeis School of Law, where he served as president of his class and a member of the Brandeis Law Journal. In 2013 and 2014, he was selected a “Top Lawyer” for personal injury defense by Louisville Magazine. He has also been included in the last two consecutive editions of Kentucky Rising Stars® by Super Lawyers.
