

Apr 06, 2016

Categories:
Press Releases

Carol Smith and Jared Tully Recognized in 2016 Editions of West Virginia Super Lawyers® and West Virginia Rising Stars®

Frost Brown Todd (FBT) announces that Carol Smith, Member-in-Charge of the firm's Charleston office, has been recognized by West Virginia Super Lawyers® for attaining a high degree of peer recognition and professional achievement. Jared M. Tully, also member in the Charleston office, has been selected for inclusion in West Virginia Rising Stars® for the fifth consecutive year, recognizing him among the top up-and-coming attorneys in the state.

Carol Smith has nearly 30 years of experience as a private practice attorney in West Virginia. She is a member of FBT's Product Liability and Tort and Insurance Defense practice groups, and also regularly works on labor and employment matters. She has served on national trial counsel teams handling mass tort litigation throughout the country and represents clients across the state. She serves as a local and regional counsel for national corporations in a wide range of litigation cases. Smith has been included in the past three consecutive editions of West Virginia Super Lawyers®.

Jared Tully is a member of the firm's Business Litigation practice group. He routinely represents financial institutions in litigation involving claims of predatory lending and violations of the West Virginia Consumer Credit Protection Act and the Federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act. Tully represents national banks in various types of litigation, including consumer and commercial disputes, and defends insurance companies against claims of bad faith. He regularly represents clients in high profile litigation.

© 2016 FBT Gibbons LLP. May be considered attorney advertising in some jurisdictions.