Brian Higgins Joins Frost Brown Todd's Health Law Practice in Cincinnati

Frost Brown Todd announces that Associate Brian F. Higgins has joined the firm's Health Law practice in Cincinnati. Higgins will advise health care entities in corporate matters, formation and structuring, contract negotiation and regulatory compliance.

Prior to joining the firm, Higgins completed a corporate law fellowship at Medpace, Inc., a clinical research and drug and medical device development organization. While at Medpace, Inc. he formed international subsidiaries of the company in France, Greece, Malaysia, Thailand and the Philippines. He also advised biotechnology start-ups, assisting them in drafting their operating agreements, and negotiating their confidentiality, consulting, and master services agreements for the development of new pharmaceuticals. He developed his interest in health law after completing a legal internship with The Christ Hospital in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Higgins has a B.A. in Spanish from Denison University and earned his J.D. at the University of Cincinnati College of Law in 2015. At the University of Cincinnati, he was a Moot Court Honor Board Member and Associate Editor for the Immigration and Nationality Law Review.
