Frost Brown Todd announces the addition of Associate Attorney Thaddeus Boggs to the firm's Government Service Practice Group and Columbus Office. Boggs previously served as assistant city attorney for the City of Upper Arlington, and has represented municipal clients in a range of legal matters, including labor and employment, administrative appeals, land use and zoning, criminal prosecution and various constitutional and statutory provisions. He also has experience in state and federal government through internships in the legislative relations office of the Auditor of State and in the Washington D.C. office of U.S. Rep. David L. Hobson (OH-Ret.)

Boggs attended Miami University, where he earned his undergraduate degree in 2009. He earned his J.D. at the Ohio State University Moritz College of Law in 2012.
