Frost Brown Todd's Stephanie Gause and Mary Irozuru Recognized in 2017 Edition of Texas Rising Stars

Member Stephanie K. Gause and Senior Associate Mary U. Irozuru in the Dallas office of Frost Brown Todd (FBT) have been selected to the 2017 Texas Rising Stars list by Super Lawyers. Each year, no more than 2.5 percent of the lawyers in the state are selected by the research team at Super Lawyers to receive this honor.

Stephanie Gause counsels clients in a variety of real estate and corporate transactions. She is immediate past president of the Dallas Association of Young Lawyers (DAYL). In 2014, she was selected to the class of "40 Under 40" by the Dallas Business Journal and was also included in D Magazine's "Best Lawyers in Dallas." She has been included in each consecutive listing of Texas Rising Stars since 2013.

Mary Irozuru provides a broad range of legal counsel on corporate and transactional matters, including stock and asset acquisitions, private offerings, reorganizations, limited liability and limited partnership arrangements. She has been selected to the Texas Rising Stars list annually since 2014 and was included in the 2013 Lawyers of Color "Hot List," recognizing early- to mid-career minority attorneys who excel in the legal profession. She is also a fellow of the DAYL Foundation.
