Alex Czanik Joins Frost Brown Todd, Cincinnati

Intellectual property attorney Alexander S. Czanik has joined Frost Brown Todd (FBT) as an associate in the firm's Cincinnati office. Czanik assists clients in the preparation and prosecution of U.S., international and foreign patent applications, including both utility and design patents. He also conducts patentability, freedom-to-operate and patent infringement investigations.

With experience in a wide variety of technologies, including automobiles, wind turbines, and aerospace systems, Alex currently focuses his patent practice on medical devices. He holds a degree in Mechanical Engineering as well as an MBA from the University of Cincinnati and earned his law degree at the University of Cincinnati College of Law in 2014. Czanik was selected to the 2018 edition of Ohio Rising Stars® by Super Lawyers, recognizing him among the top up-and-coming intellectual property attorneys in the state.
