Frost Brown Todd Attorneys to Serve on NKY Chamber's New Employer Legal Strategies Committee

Frost Brown Todd (FBT) labor and employment attorneys Joanne Wissman Glass and Elise Elam have been named to the Employer Legal Strategies Committee, a newly created subcommittee of the Northern Kentucky Chamber of Commerce's Workforce Strategies services. The committee will advocate for local and state policies that will positively impact employers in Northern Kentucky. It will also ensure that Chamber members stay current on local, state and federal regulatory and statutory changes that could impact them as employers.

Glass and Elam are both members of FBT's Labor and Employment Practice Group and Workers Compensation service team. Glass has more than 20 years of experience specializing in workers' compensation matters.
