Former Ice Miller Partner Jeremy M. Grayem has joined Frost Brown Todd (FBT) as a member in the firm's Columbus office.

Grayem has extensive litigation experience with a focus on utility-related litigation before various Ohio state and federal courts, as well as state regulatory agencies. As a member of FBT's Government Services Practice Group, he will continue to represent utility companies and municipalities in a range of matters, including eminent domain and appropriations litigation, contractual and business disputes, land use litigation and zoning challenges, among others.

Grayem graduated from Miami University summa cum laude with a double major in political science and history and earned his J.D. at The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law with honors in 2000. He is a Leadership Upper Arlington (UA) graduate and was recognized in the 2018 edition of Ohio Super Lawyers®.
