

Oct 12, 2010

Categories:
Experience

Anonymous

When the client's non-performing loan, secured solely by the assets of a radio station, was referred to Frost Brown Todd for assistance, litigation counsel understood that the entire value of the station lay in its license, an asset on which no lien attaches and which would become valueless if the other station assets were seized and the station stopped broadcasting.

© 2026 FBT Gibbons LLP. May be considered attorney advertising in some jurisdictions.