Frost Brown Todd is representing George Steel, SOFCO Erectors, Baker Concrete and Arch. Glass & Metal in various lawsuits pending in the Hamilton County, Ohio Court of Common Pleas. The litigation relates to the notorous, Kenwood Towne Place construction project in Cincinnati. The general contractor defaulted on the project, resulting in claims totalling approximately $131 million. We have varoius contacts, including Baker Concrete's general counsel, Todd Wilkowski. FBT attorneys are John Higgins, David Olson, Reid LeMasters and Mike O'Grady (Higgins and Olson are the litigators).
