

May 14, 2009

Categories:
Experience

Anant Chandel v. Trover Foundation Family Practice Residency Program

---

Plaintiff claimed breach of contract for Trover's termination of his family practice residency. Trover had implemented a new policy regarding the number of times a resident would be allowed to attempt and fail the USMLE, Step 3 examination. Chandel failed this examination a total of six times, including three attempts after the new policy was put in place. Chandel sought damages based upon his inability to become board-certified in family practice. Case was tried by a jury to a defense verdict.

© 2026 FBT Gibbons LLP. May be considered attorney advertising in some jurisdictions.