Trial attorney Derek Staub joined Frost Brown Todd's (FBT) Dallas office in September as a Member. Staub brings a wealth of experience in both white-collar crime and health care litigation. He provides clients with counsel related to internal investigations and audits related to fraud, employee misconduct and compliance. Staub previously served as an assistant district attorney in Dallas County in addition to work at other Dallas law firms.

The National Academy of Criminal Defense Attorneys named Staub one of the "Top 10 Under 40 Criminal Defense Attorneys" in Texas. The Dallas native has also been recognized as a "Best Lawyer Under 40" by D Magazine. He graduated from Michigan State University College of Law. He is a member of the Dallas Bar Association and admitted to practice in the U.S. District Courts for the Northern Southern and Eastern Districts of Texas and the Northern District of Illinois.

FBT's white-collar crime team defends clients in federal and state criminal proceedings and actions, federal grand jury and agency investigations and administrative proceedings, as well as comparable state proceedings. In addition, the group counsels' businesses regarding sophisticated compliance policies and programs to head off developing issues before they become problems.
