The new industrial hemp industry presents financial institutions with exciting business opportunities. To capture the rewards, our financial institutions must carefully comply with existing rules and regulations when on-boarding these new customers. This webinar will cover the key points of providing account relationships, loan products and treasury management services to hemp-related business customers.

This video was created for general informational purposes only as of the time of its creation and does not constitute legal advice, the formation of an attorney client relationship, or a solicitation to provide legal services.

Note: This webinar is part of a monthly series in which Frost Brown Todd attorneys focus on hemp-related topics and trends through the lens of various legal disciplines, from general regulatory to intellectual property, banking, and advertising law. For updates, visit www.hemplegallyspeaking.com.
