Frost Brown Todd's Terrence J.L. Reeves Named to Lawyers of Color 2020 Power List

Reeves serves as Ann Arbor office Member-in-Charge

Lawyers of Color (LoC) named Frost Brown Todd's (FBT) Terrence J.L. Reeves one of the most influential minority attorneys and allies in the nation as part of its 2020 Power List. The list includes both minority and non-minority allies who serve as general counsel, law firm managing partners, law school deans and attorneys in the highest level of government.

Reeves helped launch FBT's Ann Arbor office where he serves as Member-in-Charge. He represents startups and emerging businesses in all stages of development and advises clients in a range of industries from technology and energy to mobility and healthcare. He is a graduate of Wayne State University Law School and the University of Notre Dame's Mendoza College of Business.

"I've followed the careers of many of the attorneys included on the Power List and am honored to be selected this year," says Reeves. "Lawyers of Color is a leader when it comes to empowering minorities in the legal industry. I look forward to continuing our shared mission."

Lawyers of Color is a 501(c)(3) devoted to promoting diversity in the legal profession and advancing democracy and equality in marginalized communities. We celebrate attorneys of color and conduct research and studies regarding the intersection of the legal profession and social justice. Reeves will be featured in the Lawyers of Color 2020 Power List issue. To see the full list, visit LoC's website.
