

Reopening Kentucky: Phase 2

Kentucky Governor Andy Beshear has started to announce some of the sectors that he hopes to reopen as part of Phase 2 of his Healthy at Work reopening plan.

Since April, the Governor has encouraged businesses and trade associations to submit reopening plans to help the administration develop sector-specific guidance.

Like the businesses reopening as part of Phase 1, all businesses reopening in Phase 2 must meet certain minimum requirements and sector-specific guidance.

Those sectors that Governor Beshear has identified to reopen in Phase 2 (with targeted reopening date noted) include:

- June 1:
 - Auctions
 - Auto/Dirt Track Racing
 - Aquatic Centers
 - Bowling Alleys
 - Fishing Tournaments
 - Fitness Centers
 - Kentucky State Park Lodges
 - Movie Theaters
 - Salato Wildlife Education Center
- June 8
 - Childcare \(in-home programs\)
 - Aquariums
 - Distilleries
 - Museums
 - Limited Outdoor Attractions
 - Libraries
 - Horse Shows

- June 11
 - Kentucky Horse Park
 - Kentucky State Park Campgrounds
- June 15
 - Childcare \(center-based programs, day camps\)
 - Youth Sports \(low touch\)
- June 29
 - Bars
 - Gatherings of 50 People (just in time for 4th of July cookouts!)
 - Youth Sports \(expanded activities\)

As with Phase 1, this calendar is subject to adjustment – with scheduled reopenings moving forward or backward – depending upon what’s going on with virus and how reopening has gone with other sectors. The Governor’s stated goal with this advance guidance is to give businesses time to plan.
