Matt Campbell Joins Frost Brown Todd Houston Office

Expands firm's tax practice into region

Frost Brown Todd's (FBT) Houston office has added Matt Campbell to the team. With more than 20 years of tax consulting experience, he will lead the office's tax practice. In addition to his broad-based transactional tax practice, Campbell is recognized for his federal opportunity zone tax planning work and unique understanding of the requirements needed to layer in other tax incentives. He has represented everyone from Fortune 500 companies to investors in various industries, including manufacturing, real estate, hospitality, and energy.

"I'm excited that Matt has joined the Houston office of Frost Brown Todd," said Member-in-Charge Zenobia Harris Bivens. "He brings not only his extraordinary tax experience, but also a history of civic and community engagement. Matt exemplifies FBT culture and the strength of our industry and subject-matter expertise."

Campbell is accepted to practice before the U.S. Tax Court and U.S. Court of Federal Claims. He earned his Master of Laws in Taxation (LLM) from Georgetown University Law Center and his law degree from the University of Iowa College of Law.
