Overview

Frost Brown Todd's Houston team invites all visual artists in the Houston area to submit their artwork for an opportunity to have an exhibition at our office. The exhibition will feature one student artist and one established artist for a two-week period, with a catered reception on the final day. If you're a local artist looking for an opportunity to showcase your artwork, please submit your art for consideration.

Who Can Participate	This opportunity is open to all local visual artists in the Houston and surrounding areas in the media forms outlined below.
Accepted Artwork	Painting, drawing, printmaking, photography, or mixed media.
How to Apply	Please complete the Google Form to be considered. You will need to provide the following information: contact information, artist bio, artwork specifications (i.e., title, medium, dimensions and retail price for each artwork – if applicable), and up to 5 digital samples of artwork. The selection committee will only review submissions made through the Google Form, which requires a Gmail account.
How Are Artists Selected	Our Houston office's art selection committee will review all submissions sent through the Google Form and select one student artist and one established artist to participate in the exhibition and closing Reception. The selected artists will be given a day to tour the office space and curate their presentation within firm guidelines. Available dates and times will be provided in the application.
